| HCA ODEMSA | new rehab facility in Goochland 212,000, 114 private rooms, and is expected to open in 2020. May is Trauma awareness month. Brad Taylor – HCA has put out its schedule for EMS week. The neuro center of excellence that is being built in front of Johnston Willis is expected to be opened in the next two months. During Chippenhams construction EMS has been rerouted with large signs in place, emails sent out, and constant communication with the leader Megan Young –Megan is hosting two EMT classes, one in Powhatan which is maxed out at 30 students and one at ODEMSA which is at 13 students and they are ending in June. All of the 2018 merit badge classes are out with a few being cancelled due to lack of participation. ODEMSA has a new website that will be pushed out this year, our current website may have a decrease in traffic. The 2018 Regional Awards is being held at Kings Dominion this year. | |
| Old Business: Stop the Bleed Coalition Workgroup Glucagon Video | Greg Neiman gave an update. He stated there are multiple classes going on in the area. Each partner has been holding classes separately. On May 30th they have a coalition meeting to discuss the events and classes. Megan and Ryan showed the glucagon video. After some discussion it was decided to send the video to Allen Yee for his thoughts. | |
| New Business: Platinum Planner Question | John Kirtley brought up a Platinum Planner issue. A student touched sterilized equipment in an OR and was asked to leave by a doctor. Once she left she was barred by the hospital from signing up for anymore shifts at any hospital. There was discussion on who had the capabilities to do this and it ended without resolution. There was no further business from the floor. | |
